About the SAA

The Suzuki Association of the Americas’ (SAA) mission is to promote and support excellence in Suzuki education for teachers, parents, and students in the Americas. SAA is a non-profit organization which comprises teachers, parents, performers and supporters of Talent Education, a philosophy which encourages all children and supports sharing new ideas. Our membership is growing rapidly as the demand for Suzuki-oriented education increases. The SAA’s membership includes those interested in violin, viola, cello, bass, brass, piano, flute, guitar, harp, recorder, organ, voice, early childhood education and Suzuki in the Schools.

American Suzuki Journal

The American Suzuki Journal (ASJ) is the quarterly publication of the SAA, the official organization for Suzuki® Education in the Americas. This combined with a dedicated readership and attractive advertising rates make the American Suzuki Journal an excellent medium for advertising your business! The ASJ’s broad scope caters to the diverse interests of our wide-ranging membership and other musicians interested in Suzuki education. It offers information on more than 60 summer institutes, an active teacher development program with scholarship opportunities, feature articles on Suzuki events, and informative columns for teachers and parents. Published quarterly in 4-color on glossy stock, the minimum run is 8,000. The ASJ is printed on a digital press using the saddle stitch binding method. Each issue reaches more than 15,000 readers via library subscriptions, studio use, summer institute distribution and regular subscriptions. Members are able to access the ASJ online!

Our 50th Year

This year marks the 50th anniversary of the ASJ! We plan to celebrate our history and our future with several special issues over the course of the year. We welcome advertisements for these landmark editions, which will attract print and online readers across the globe.

To celebrate, we are offering a $100 discount for advertisers purchasing the inside front cover, inside back cover, or outside back cover. These are our most visible advertising locations, so inquire now before these slots fill up!
